2018 marks the bicentenary of the opening of the Pocklington Canal and PCAS works closely with the Canal & River Trust, Natural England and with other organisations with an interest in the canal.

If you are interested in volunteering, there are plenty of opportunities to help, either regularly or when you have the time. Please contact any member of the committee (see website) or enclose a note with this form.

The aims of the Pocklington Canal Amenity Society are

- to promote restoration of the canal to a navigable standard for the benefit of the local community and the general public, as an amenity that can be enjoyed by all.
- to stimulate public interest and appreciation of the beauty, history, flora & fauna, and structures of the Pocklington Canal and its environs, with respect for the legal protection of its heritage and wildlife.
- to support the use of the canal for educational purposes.
